

Leah M. Cheever
 Leah Miller Cheever, 60, beloved mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother, passed away on March 27, 1987, in Salt Lake City, Utah. Born July 13, 1896, St. Anthony, Idaho to Arnold D. Miller and Mary J. Miller, prominent pioneers of the Upper Snake River Valley. Married Stanley S. Cheever in Salt Lake City Temple. They later moved to Alameda, California where she was active in church work, helped organize the first primary organization in what was then the Oakland Branch. Thereafter, the family moved to Salt Lake where she has lived the remainder of life. Attended local schools, later attending Brigham Young University. Was active in the LDS church and her main interest was Relief Society work where she served for many years as President of the Relief Society of the Federal Helms Ward. Was a life member of the Daughters of the Utah Pioneers, served on Stake Central Board as Secretary, and later on the Finance Committee when the Pioneer Woman Association was organized. President of the Chil Omega Mothers, an active member of the Salt Lake Lady Lions Auxiliary, the Salt Lake Ladies Literary Club, and a member of the D.A.R.

Her husband passed away January 20, 1973. A daughter, Vae C. Swinton, preceded her in death. Survived by a daughter, Mrs. Raleigh W. (Lue) Moore and four grandchildren: Mrs. Stephen (Lynn) Nelson, Mrs. Steven Swinton, Jeffrey Cheever Swinton, and Mrs. William (Frank) Nighswonger, 16 great-grandchildren, and one great-granddaughter.

Funeral services will be held at the Federal Helms Ward, 1300 Fairfax Road, April 3, 1987 at 12:00 noon. Viewing April 2nd from 6-8 p.m. at the Larkin Mortuary, 260 East South Temple, and the service will be held at the funeral home. Burial will be in the Westport Wascatch Lawn Memorial Park.

N3 4/1

N1 4/2